

PUBP309: EDUCATION POLICY

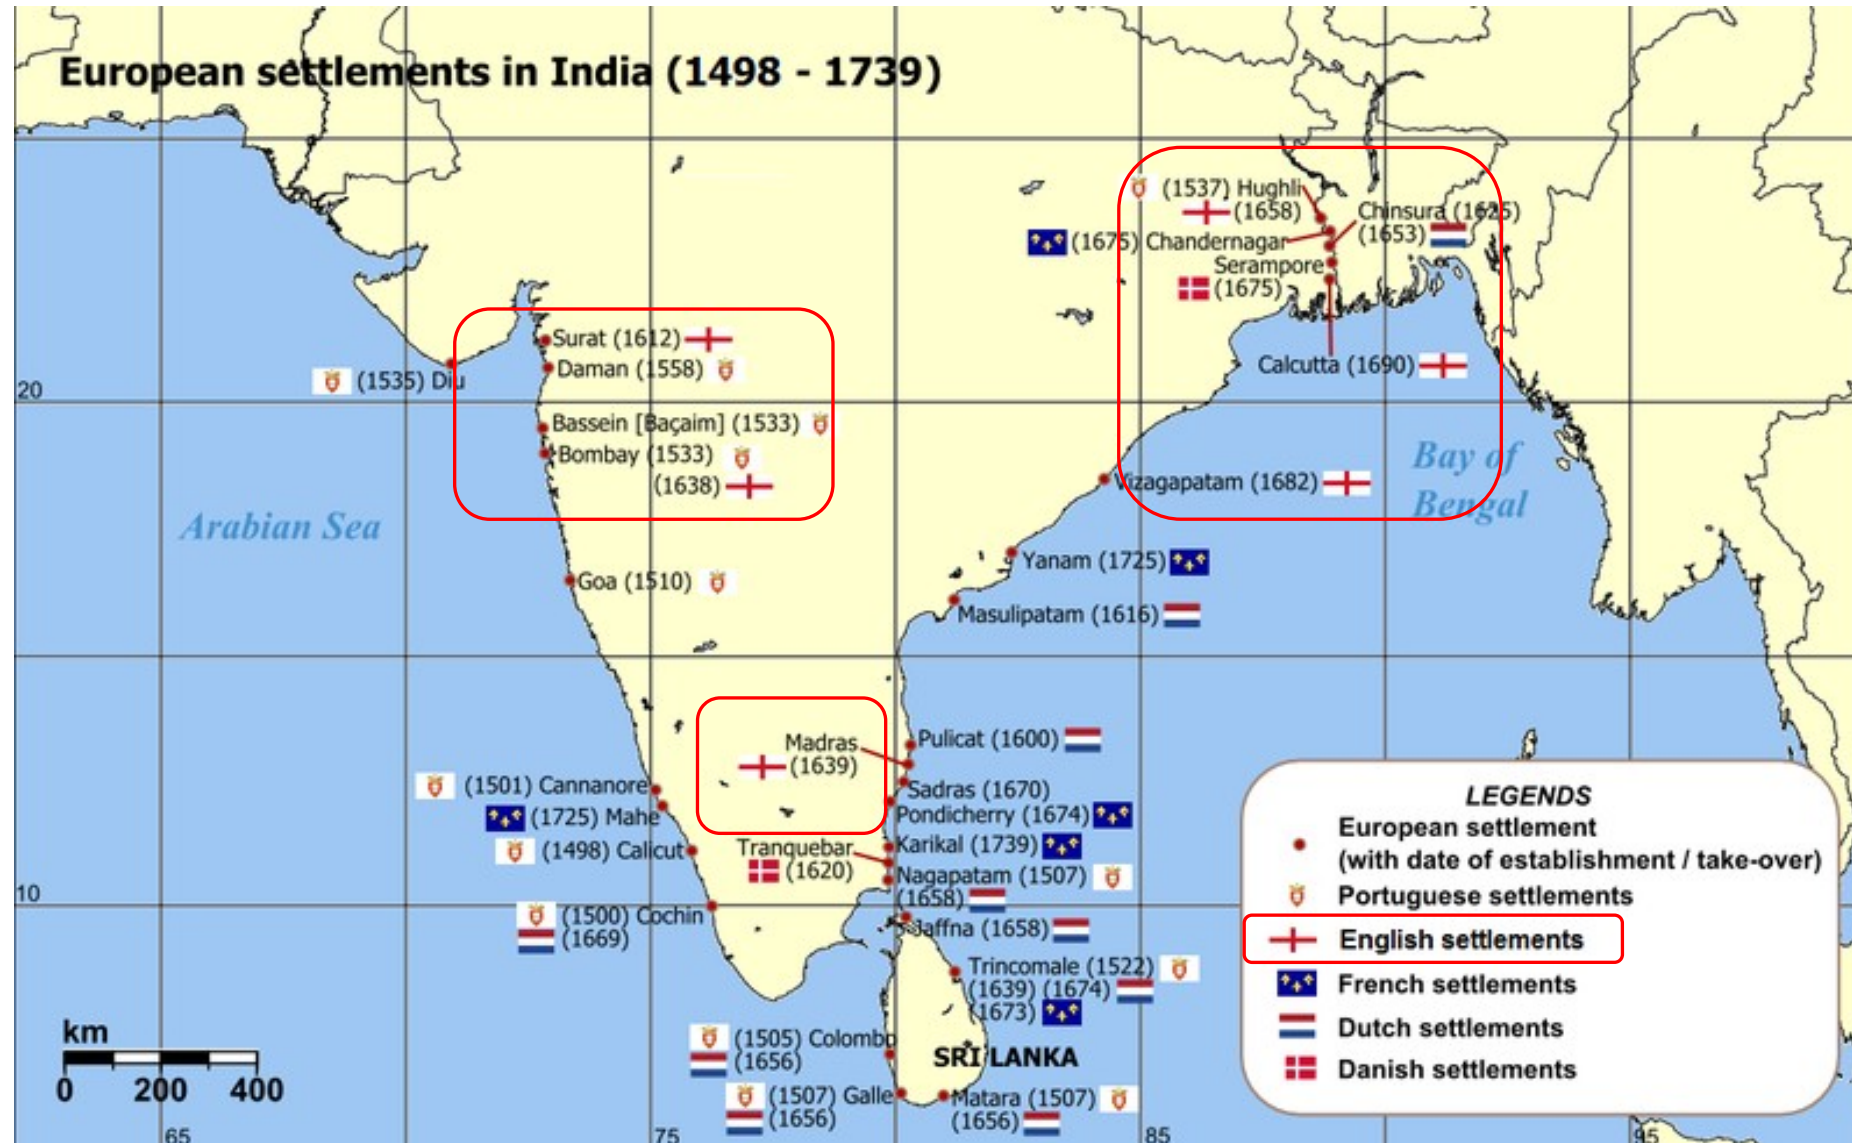

Education in Colonial India
1757-1835

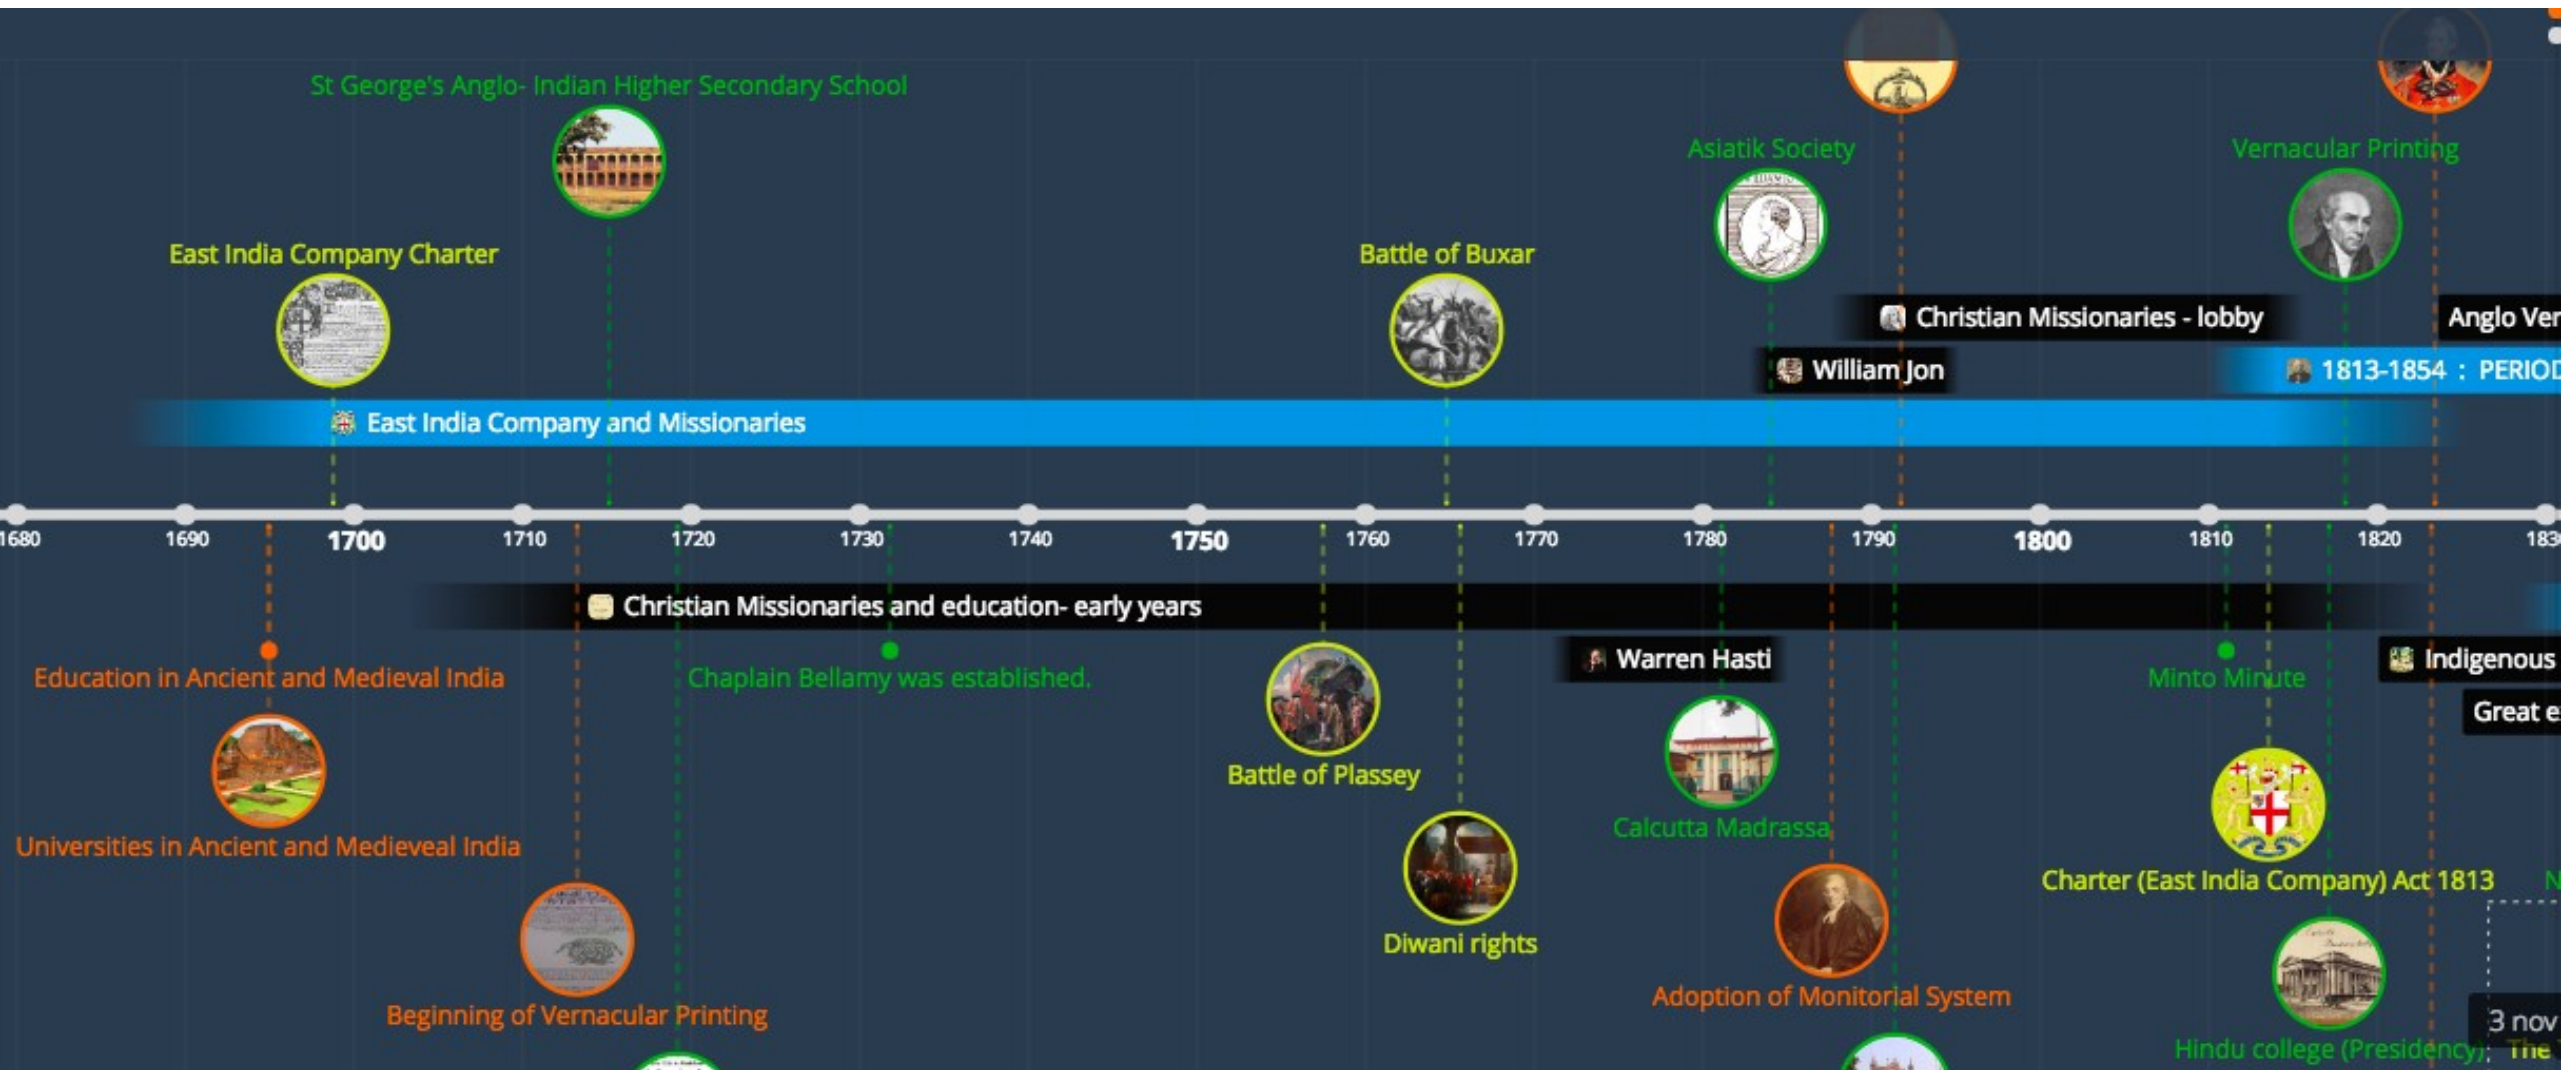

Shivakumar Jolad
FLAME University

EDUCATION IN COLONIAL INDIA

EUROPEAN SETTLEMENTS IN INDIA (1500-1700)

TIMELINE- Class of HS 511- 2017
<https://time.graphics/line/2337>

HISTORY: EAST INDIA COMPANY- 1700-1763

EAST INDIA COMPANY 1600-1765

Proselytizing educational activities

East India Company charter –
1698: missionary clause

Education of Christian children and
Anglo-Indians

- ▮ No contribution to education of natives

Charity Schools

- ▮ St Mary's charity School- Madras (1715)
- ▮ Chaplain Bellamy, Calcutta- 1715
- ▮ Male Asylum-, Madras Dr. Andrew Bell

1698
charter

PITTS ACT- 1784

Also called the East India Company Act, 1784

Dual control of British possessions in India by the British government and the Company.. Continued till 1858

Board of Control (for political matters)- took care of civil and military affairs. (Crown)- Secretary of state

Court of Directors (Company)- Commercial affairs

Governor General (Bengal); Governors- Bombay and Madras Presidencies

EAST INDIA COMPANY 1600-1765

Proselytizing educational activities

East India Company charter –
1698: missionary clause

Education of Christian children and
Anglo-Indians

- ▮ No contribution to education of natives

Charity Schools

- ▮ St Mary's charity School- Madras (1715)
- ▮ Chaplain Bellamy, Calcutta- 1715
- ▮ Male Asylum-, Madras Dr. Andrew Bell

1698
charter

PITTS ACT- 1784

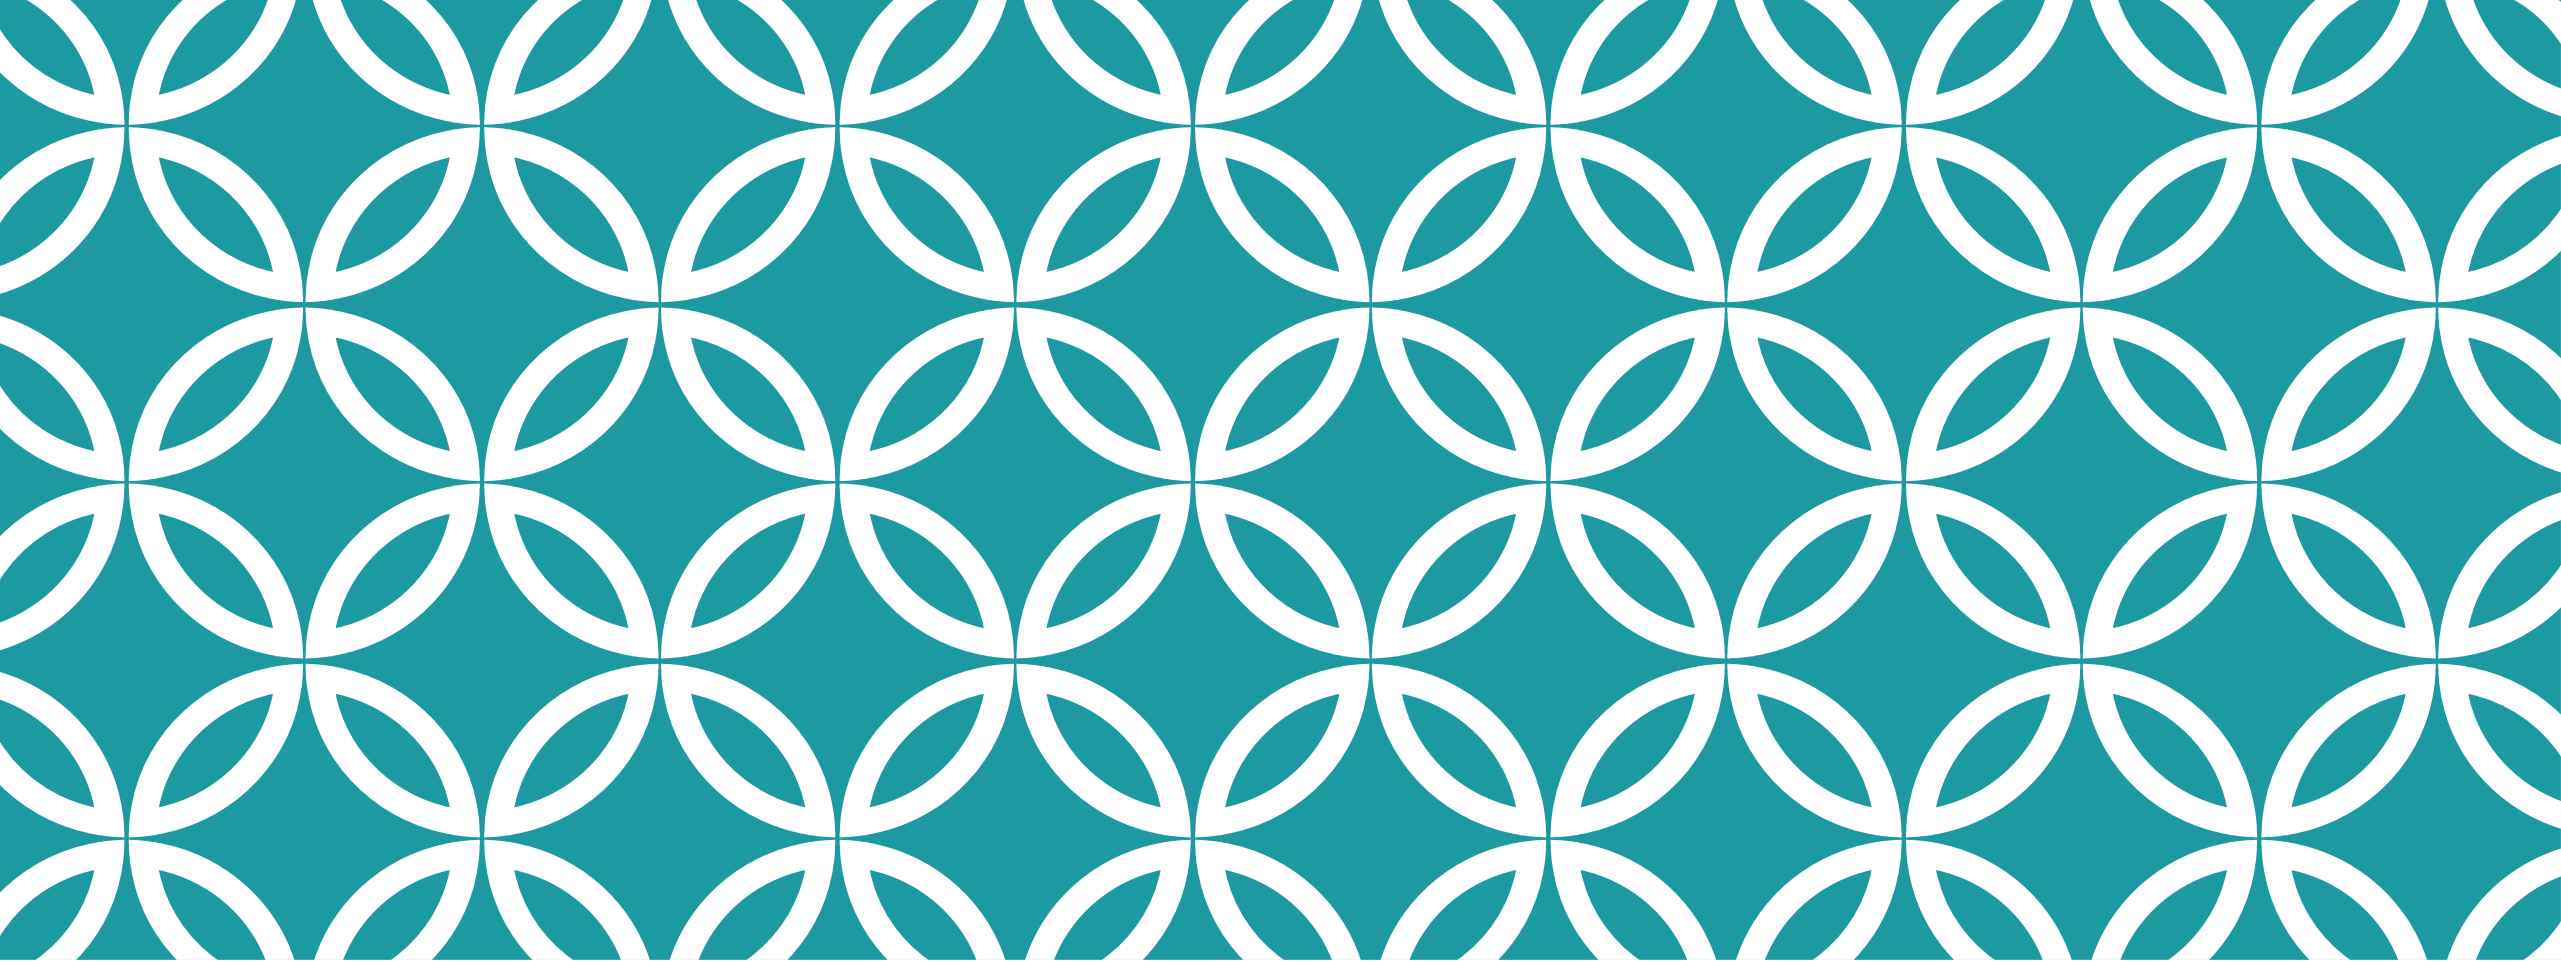

Also called the East India Company Act, 1784

Dual control of British possessions in India by the British government and the Company.. Continued till 1858

Board of Control (for political matters)- took care of civil and military affairs. (Crown)- Secretary of state

Court of Directors (Company)- Commercial affairs

Governor General (Bengal); Governors- Bombay and Madras Presidencies

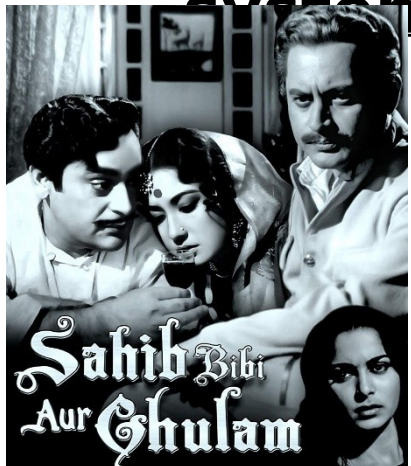

GREAT INDIAN EDUCATION DRAMA |

GREAT INDIAN EDUCATION DRAMA

19th-early 20th Century- the Indian education history and British- history closely interlinked.

Actors: Missionaries , European officers and Indian people

Conflict of the drama: Struggle between the old and the new system of education.

Syed Nururillah and J P Naik, . (1951).
A History of Education in India. Bombay, Mac. Millan.

WILLIAM CAREY, D.D.

ACTS OF THE DRAMA

Act 1(1700-1813): East India Company and missionaries

Act 2 (1813- 1854): A Period of Experiments : Charter Act to Education Despatch

Act 3(1854-1900): Victorian Era- Period of Westernization of Education, Indianization of agencies

Act 4 (1901-1921): Political Unrest, Quest for national education

Act 5 (1922-1937): Education under Dyarchy

Act 6 (1937- 1947); Education under provincial autonomy

ACT 1 (1765-1813) EAST INDIA COMPANY AND MISSIONARIES

1765-1813: EAST INDIA COMPANY AND MISSIONARIES

Conflict: unwillingness of court of directors in education of natives , missionaries push for education of natives and attempts at proselytizing (Christianity)

Development of Oriental education by orientalists:

Oriental school of education Policy : Followed footsteps of Hindu and Muslim rulers

No to proselytization > kept missionaries at bay, did not want to antagonize natives.

Warren Hastings (From Wiki)

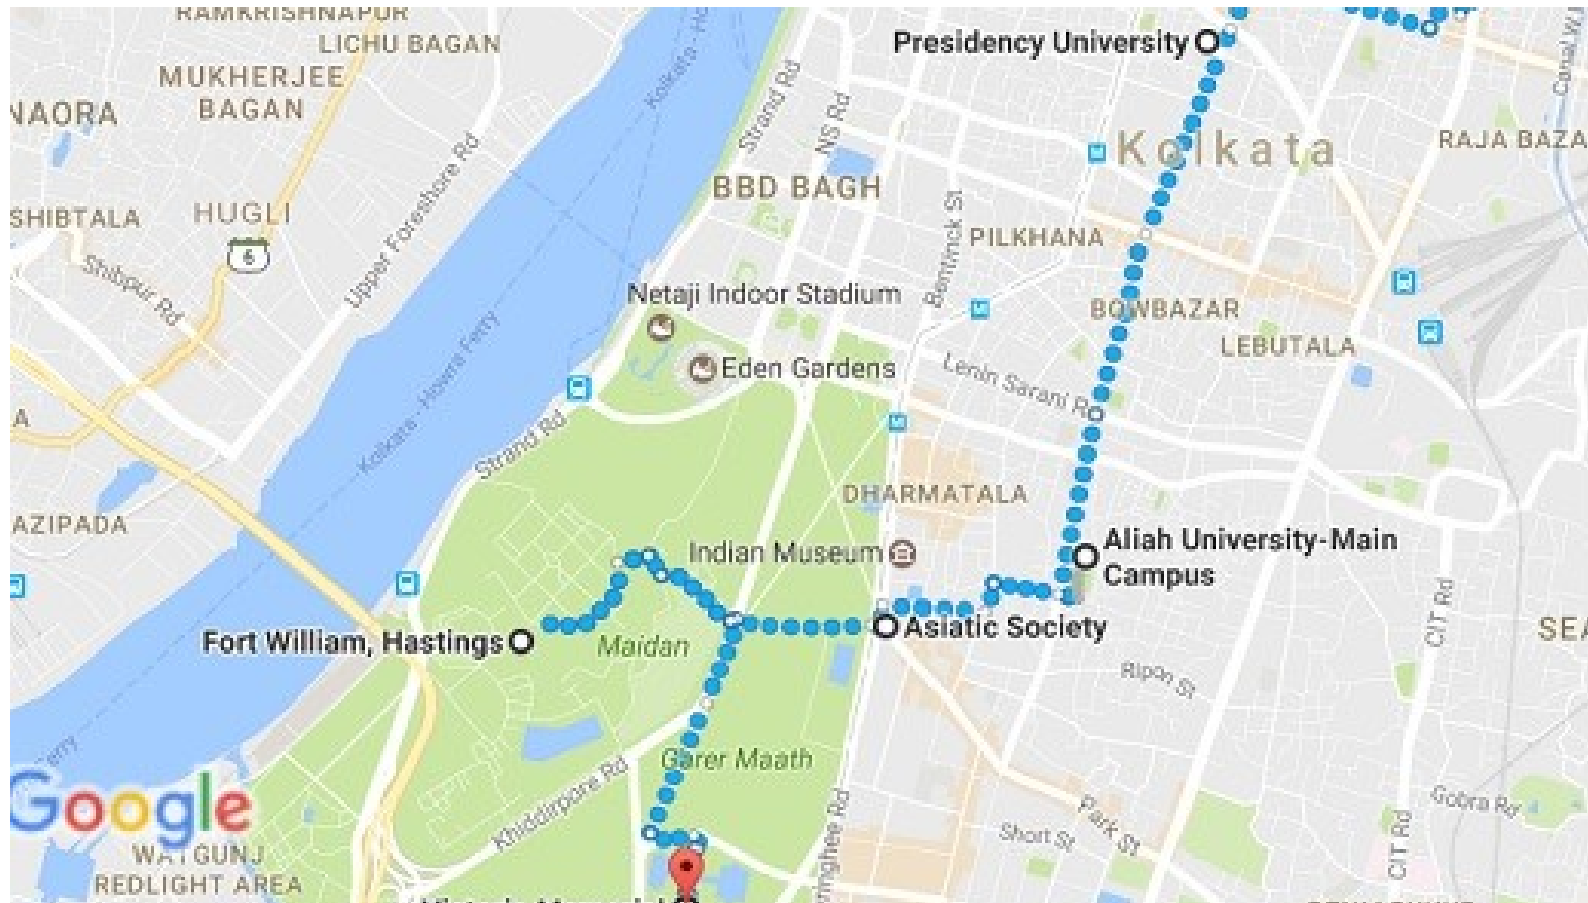

COMPANY ATTITUDE - CHRISTIAN MISSIONARIES

Christian Missionaries- were operating covertly with religious and Christian education objectives prior to 1813.

East India company's hostile attitude towards missionaries

Policy of non-interference in religious affairs

Missionaries influence in Britain to allow them open schools in India for religious and moral improvement of the native.

CALCUTTA MADRASSA- 1781

<http://www.milligazette.com/images2002/68-Madrassa-Kolkata-shahid-1.jpg>

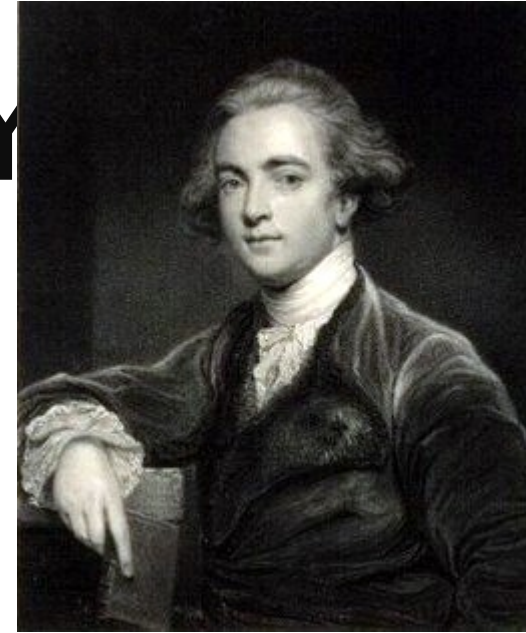

Old Building-

<https://asiatic-society.com/>

Present building
(pic)

SOCIETY

William Jones (1746 –1794)

Great Indologist.. Persian Scholar- Grammar of the Persian Language, and Persian translations 1771-73..

Translated 'Abhignana Shakunta'- to English ('The Fatal Ring')

Established Asiatick Society , 1784 to “ enquiry into the history, antiquities of arts, sciences and literature of Asia”... Journal Asiatic Researches

BENERAS SANSKRIT COLLEGE- 1791

Jonathan
Duncan

<http://wiki.theflowerraj.org/images/thumb/a/a8/Sanskrit-University-Banaras-2010.jpg/300px-Sanskrit-University-Banaras-2010.jpg>

CHRISTIAN MISSIONARIES- EDUCATION

Pioneers in private enterprise in education in India

Schools were used as means of proselytizing (both cause and effect)

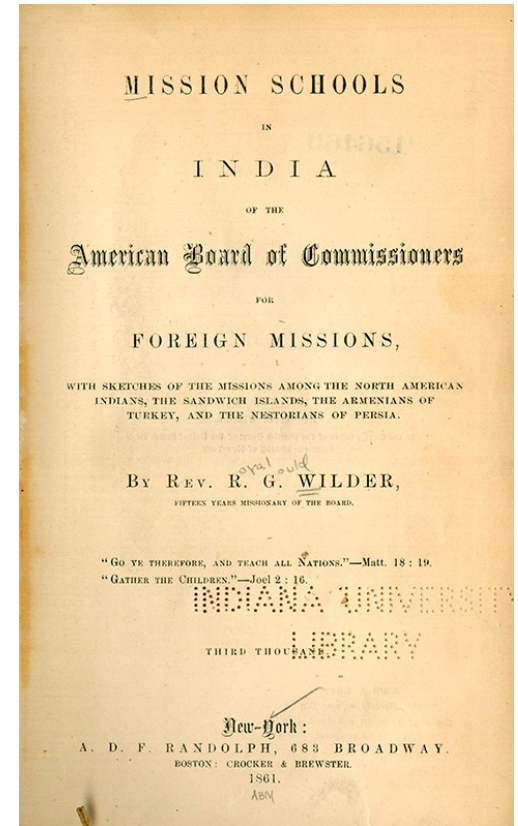

Educating lowest rungs of Hindu society in native languages.-- Printing bible in Indian languages

Danish missionaries (with support of EIC):

- ▢ Madras and Bengal

- ▢ First printing press in Tamil 1713

- ▢ Schwartz: pioneer of education in Madras (schools in Tiruchanapally and Tanjore)

DEVELOPMENT OF VERNACULAR LANGUAGE AND PRINTING

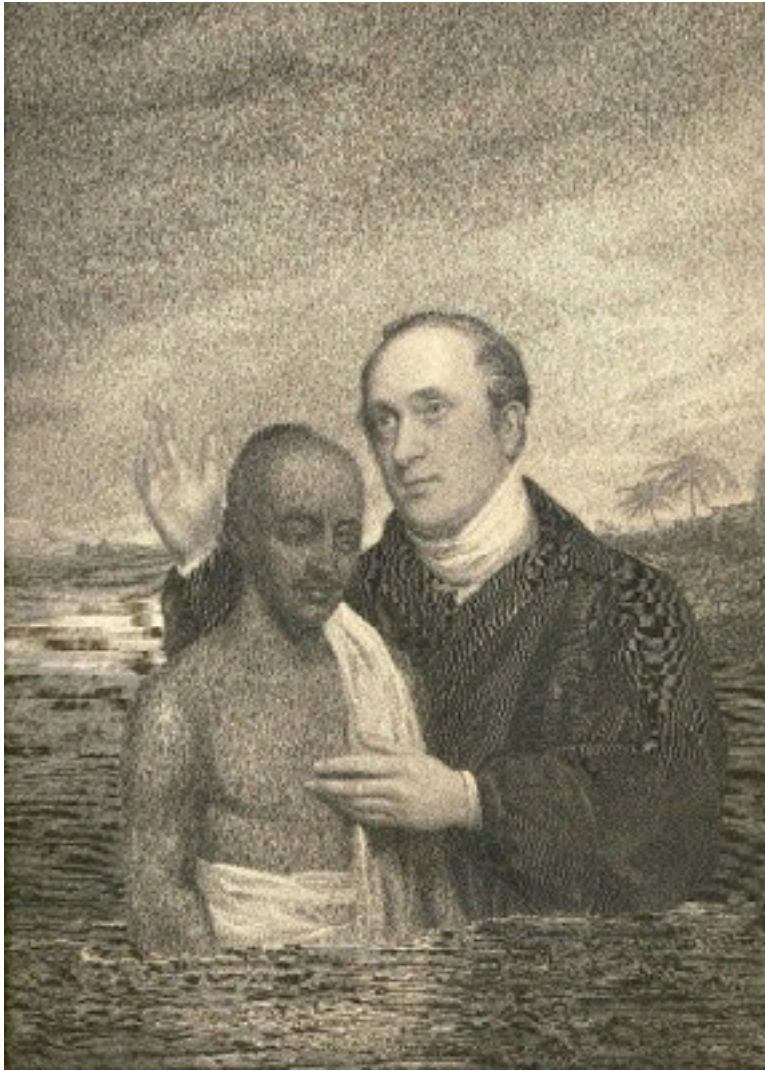

WILLIAM CAREY, D.D.

Danish missionaries- Serampore trio (1793-1813)

- ▮ Dr. William Carey- (Baptist missionary society)
- ▮ William Ward- Printer and missionary
- ▮ Marshman – school teacher

M A Sherring (History of protestant missions in India)

“In no country in the world, and in no period in the history of Christianity, was there ever displayed such an amount of energy in the translation of the Sacred Scriptures from their originals into other tongues, as was exhibited by a handful of earnest men in Calcutta and Serampore in the first ten years of the present century. ...during this short period, portions of the Bible, chiefly of the New Testament, had been translated, and actually printed, in thirty-one Indian languages and dialects. One is amazed, and almost overwhelmed, at the stupendousness of this undertaking. that these first attempts are to be ' compared with the versions which have been subsequently made in these languages...the Serampore press alone issuing them in twenty languages, and, in addition, books for schools and colleges.

William
Ward

<http://www.missionariesoftheworld.org/2011/07/william-ward.html>

^{1,2}The Danes are back: How a Bengal town is restoring its European legacy, Hindustan Times, Dec 13, 2017
12

<https://scroll.in/magazine/862233/with-the-restoration-of-a-danish-tavern-in-serampore-a-forgotten-chapter-of-history-comes-to-light>

CHARTER ACT 1813

The East India Company Act 1813

Asserted Crown's sovereignty over British India

Mandated that of not less than 1,00,000 rupees a year to be used for education of the natives.

Allowed missionaries to propagate English and their religion Act of 1813.

Helped to revive the oriental institutes – Calcutta Madrassa and Benaras Hindoo Sanskrit college .

Helped spread the “western science” knowledge in India

First time it was noted that “dissemination of 22

Selections from Educational Records

(7) *East India Company Act of 1813, section 43.

It shall be lawful for the Governor-General in Council to direct that out of any surplus which may remain of the rents, revenues, and profits arising from the said territorial acquisitions, after defraying the expenses of the military, civil, and commercial establishments and paying the interest of the debt, in manner hereinafter provided, a sum of not less than one lac of rupees in each year shall be set apart and applied to the revival and improvement of literature and the encouragement of the learned natives of India, and for the introduction and promotion of a knowledge of the sciences among the inhabitants of the British territories in India; and that any schools, public lectures, or other institutions,

ACT II: 1813-54 PERIOD OF EXPERIMENTS AND CONTROVERSIES

Timeline of Colonial India

1806- 1858

1806: Vellore mutiny ruthlessly suppressed.

1825: First massive migration of Indian workers from Madras to Reunion and Mauritius.

1828: Rammohan Roy founds Adi Brahma Samaj in Calcutta, first movement to initiate socio-religious reform. Influenced by Islam and Christianity, he denounces polytheism, idol worship and more.

1835: Macaulay's Minute furthers Western education in India. English is made official government and court language.

1835: Mauritius receives 19,000 migrant indentured labourers from India. Workers continued to be shipped to Mauritius till 1922.

1837: Kali-worshipping thugs suppressed by the British.

1839: Preacher William Howitt attacks British rule in India.

1843: British conquer the Sindh region (present-day Pakistan). British promulgate 'doctrine of lapse', under which a state is taken over by the British whenever a ruler dies without an heir.

1853: First railway established between Bombay and Thane.

1857: First major Indian revolt, called the Sepoy Mutiny by the British, ends in a few months with the fall of Delhi and Lucknow.

1858: Queen Victoria's Proclamation taking over in the name of the Crown the governance of India from the East India Company. Civil service jobs in India are opened to Indians.

An Era of Darkness
Shashi Tharoor

QUESTIONS: SPENDING ON EDUCATION – 1813-35?

Objective: Duty of England to spread western science and literature? Training them to hold subordinate positions?

Agencies – English, Missionary, Indians?

Medium of Instruction: English, Classical Languages, Vernacular languages?

To whom: Classes or masses?- Top –down or bottoms up?

ORIENTALIST, OCCIDENTALIST (AGLICIST) AND VERNACULARIST

Anglo-oriental controversy: English or classical Indian languages? (higher ed- Bengal)

Anglo-Vernacular Controversy: English or vernacular Indian languages

RAM MOHAN ROY

Pic from wiki

Pitched for diffusion of European education and knowledge for countrymen.

An urgent plea for the introduction of modern education in India

Opposed setting up of Sanskrit college in Calcutta – emphasized mathematics, natural philosophy, chemistry, anatomy and other useful sciences..

“... The Sangscrit system of education would be best calculated to keep this country in darkness, if such had been the policy of the British Legislature. But as the improvement of the native population is the object of the Government, it will consequently promote a more liberal and enlightened system of instruction, embracing mathematics, natural philosophy, chemistry and anatomy, with other useful science [s] ”

Ram Mohan Roy letter to governor general Dec 1823

Quoted from “Makers of Modern India”

HINDU COLLEGE TO PRESIDENCY COLLEGE

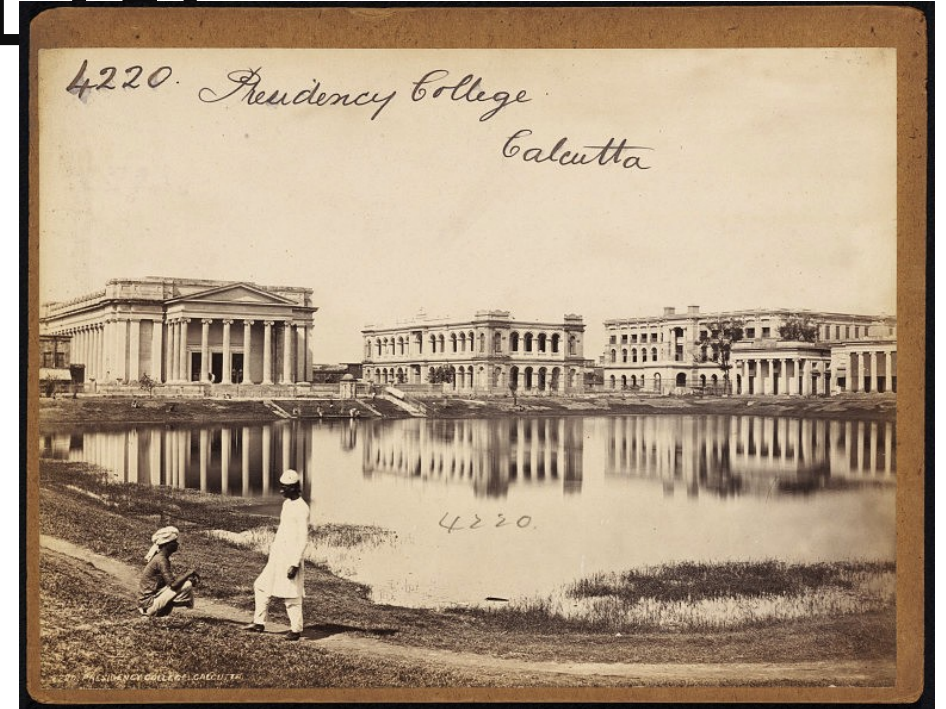

David Hare (Scottish watchmaker and philanthropist in Bengal, India)

- ▣ Believed in secular schools teaching mother tongue and English, spreading English literature
- ▣ Not a fan of Sanskrit or even sciences

Hindu College- David Hare, Ram Mohan Roy, Radhakrishan Deb etc..

1854- Converted senior department of Hindu college to Presidency college..

Opened it up to all sections of society. They could take up any desired branch available for study.

Presidency College in the mid nineteenth century,
(Photographer: Francis Frith, b/w 1850s -70's)
<http://oldkolkata.blogspot.in/>

BENTHAM AND BENTICK: UTILITARIANS

Jeremy Bentham

(1748-1842)

Founder of Modern
Utilitarianism

What is the right thing to do?– Watch Justice at Harvard (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kBdfcR-8hEY>)

James Mill, the disciple of Bentham wrote History of British India with scathing criticism Indian society “Nothing to praise in Hindu or Muslim systems, nothing to admire the Indian values...”

Bentick- Governor General of India- 1828. Hard core utilitarian. Considered James Mill as his Guru.

Made Sati illegal, banned thugi (Thugees) and infanticide

Pushed the General Committee to include English in all oriental colleges..

James Mill

1773-1836

William Bentick

(1774 –1839)

Images from Wikipedia

MACAULAY MINUTES – FEB 1835

Thomas Macaulay was appointed President of the General Committee on Education

Opposed continuation of Oriental learning .. Did not have any knowledge of Sanskrit or Arabic but said:

“a single shelf of a good European library was worth the whole native literature of India and Arabia.”

Aim of English Education: “We must at present do our best to form a class who may be interpreters between us and the millions whom we govern - a class of persons Indian in blood and colour, but English in tastes, in opinions, in morals and in intellect.”

White man's burden: “It was duty of England to teach what was good for their health, not what was palatable to their taste”

Thomas Babington Macaulay
(1800- 1859)

WILLIAM BENTICK DECISION – 7 MARCH 1835

Concurred largely with Macaulay on English Education.. But kept the Oriental education as it is , without further expansion.

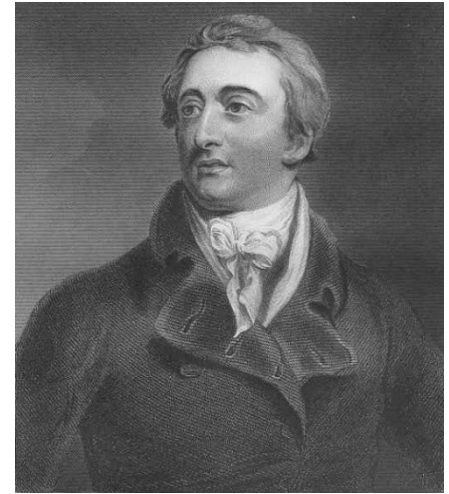

English Education Act 1835

First:... Great object of the British Government ought to be the promotion of European literature and science among the natives of India; and that all the funds appropriated for the purpose of education would be best employed on English education alone.

Second, : His Lordship in Council directs that all the existing professors and students at all the institutions under the superintendence of the Committee shall continue to receive their stipends.

Third, It has come to the knowledge of the Governor-General in Council that a large sum has been expended by the committee on the printing of Oriental works; his Lordship in Council directs that no portion of the funds shall hereafter be so employed.

Fourth, His lordship in council directs that all the funds which these

William Bentick
(1774 –1839)